“ I remeber when Grandma first taught me how to cook a pumpkin pie. lol! We ate more of the filling than what we put into the pie! Also I will never forget when she would send me out on a quest to find a new litter of kittens in the barn or milk house! And when I was tired she would put me on her lap and rock me to sleep on the love seat! Not too long ago we played skip-bo with the family and I loved seeing her big smile when she won!

I will always think of cooking with my Grandma when I walk into the kitchen! And when I play with my kittys I will think of us playing with the strays at the farm! And I will always remember seeing her big smile whenever I saw her! Grandma I will miss you. I will miss you tons!!! I will see you and Grandpa again, maybe not as soon as I would like, but I know you will greet me by the gates of heaven!!! Then SKIP-BO's ON !!! :)###imported-begin##Stephanie Gahman###imported-end##
