“ *I was not aware that our "Aunt Mary" had passed. She was such a good friend to my mom and our families grew up together. I will always remember: card parties and doing the Twist with all the grown ups and kids...Aunt Mary's liver and onions (SO good!) and her Black Walnut cookies. I make them every Christmas and they always remind me of Mary and the golden can of cookies she would bring us. One last memory: When my dad started his business, we had a Christmas where money was very tight and presents were few. Mary brought presents for all of us...I remember getting a big box of crayons, coloring books, and more. A true family friend indeed! God bless you, Aunt Mary.
