“ Maxine was a wonderful lady. My husband, Doyle Harnish, used to to work for Maxine and her husband Richard when they had the turkey farm in 196x. They also spent their winters near us in Apache Junction, AZ. I am so thankful we had a chance to visit with Maxine about 4 years ago because Doyle was no longer able to travel after that and he passed away in June 2015.

“ I enjoyed visiting with Maxine when she and my mother, Gloria Gordon, shared their dining table while they were in the assisted living wing of River Terrace. She was always positive and smiling. She was especially happy the morning that I invited her to have a special breakfast with members of our family and I showed her the original Pennsylvania Dutch "fraktur" from 1832 that I had recently found in the attic of my great-grandmother (Priscilla McAfee Gordon) which documented the birth of Maxine's great-grandmother, Elizabeth Loich (Lesh), to Johannes and Anamaria Loich in Bethel Township of Bercks County Pennsylvania.

“ We all loved Maxine so much! I would read her funny short stories and we would laugh until we cried. She was so caring and shared some wonderful stories of her life with us. She was my friend and I will miss her very much.
