

Norman J Dailey

October 6, 1946 - October 8, 2017

Norman J. Dailey, 71, of Ossian, passed away on Sunday afternoon, October 8, 2017, at his residence surrounded by his family.

He was born on October 6, 1946 in Fort Wayne to Paul W. & C. Corrinne (Costello) Dailey. He worked at Zollner Piston Corp. in Fort Wayne for 32 years and has worked for the Wal-Mart in Bluffton and Decatur over the past 5 years.

Norman had a sincere heart for the Lord, and enjoyed his trip he took to Israel. He was an active member of Hope Missionary Church for over 30 years. Next to his faith, he was a very proud father that supported his daughters in any way that he could and was a very loving grandpa. He enjoyed history antiques and restoring his home, that has been in the family for many generations.

On June 15, 1975 in Warren, Norman and Rose M. (Drabenstot) were married.

He is survived by his wife Rose of Ossian along with two daughters: Sarah Rose Dailey of Bluffton and Lydia Jessie (Jarrod) Kunkel of Bluffton along with six grandchildren. Norman was the youngest of three boys, and is also survived by his brothers Paul W. (Diane) Dailey of St. Charles, IL and Richard A. (Nancy) Dailey of Fountain Hills, AZ., along with many cousins.

Norm was a truly gentle person and I always enjoyed talking with him at work! What a great loss for both his family and friends! Sometimes just knowing that our loved ones made it to Heaven is all the comfort we need to sustain our great sorrow. I guess what I'm trying to portray is that this very fact helps me in Norm's case. Heaven has revealed all of its promises to Norm. It must be far more than our heart's desires! Praise God for Norm's beautifully new creation!!!
