“ *Lucille was a good friend of my mother, Ople Mounsey. As a teenager went to the same church. May God surround the family with His love. We do know she is in a much better place now with her Heavenly Father.
In Christain Love,*

“ Lucy;

I will miss your bright smile and wonderful personality. I will always remember the good times we had at square d and when you were there for me when my father was at Markle. We shall meet again, but in a far better place. Be happy!##imported-begin##Esther##imported-end##
