“ Helen, I meet Brownie at Six Miles Cemetery. When I would go out there, he always came over to talk. He did a great job at there. Brownie would always say I will take good care of your loved ones here. I saw him at street fair, he said if you every see me out in my garage stop in to hi. I loved hearing about his fishing stories. Our prays are with you & the family. Penny & George Gehrett & Family###imported-begin###Penny & George Gehrett###imported-end##

“ Helen,
You are in my thoughts and prayers. I just wanted to let you know that Brownie truly was a joy. I work at Franklin and park over here in the annex parking lot. I always looked forward to seeing him sit outside and to exchange waves with him. He will truly be missed by all.
