“ What could i say about Pansy? She had a heart of gold. We met at the soccer field and became friends after. We didnt always keep in touch and i would always kid with her how bad she was at that lol. I wish i was better keeping in more touch with her. I am sad to see her leave this world but am so grateful to have had her in my life and to meet her and am blessed to call her my friend. God bless her family during this time. We lost a great woman and God gained an amazing lady.
