“ Pat was a kind and caring person, he had his moments like everyone does; but for the most part he always had a smile to share. I know Pat loved his Bingo and Jimmy Cracked Corn and the love of his life his wife Barb...I shared a lot of good times with Pat and Barb and they will both be dearly missed, but never forgotten...My thoughts and prayers go out to all the kids and other family members....

I had Pat in my Sunday School class when he was a boy . We would hike to the St. Park and when we had a cake with candles for his birthday, he ate them all and 12 glasses of bunch. He was always a delight to be with. HEAVEN IS BLESS TO HAVE HIM.

Well pat its been years since we have seen one another from the times of playing pool at the cigar store from a late night of entertainment to the times of visiting you at the legion hall where your dad emitt worked, it was nice to hear you found a true love in your life of your wife barb who you now share Heavens beauty with, as for me and your brother John the times of those days were fun but it was time to move on for us all,we all grew in friendship and always had a kind word for one another, I know your health has been failing the last few years but I always have prayed for you and so many in life, now your at peace with no more suffering or no more dissapointments of this world, but in a home we all shall unite someday when it is our time to enter through those Pearly Gates, so my friend enjoy the beauty of Heaven as the colors of the rainbows and the golden streets of Heaven shine upon your feet as you walk with Jesus hand in hand as he shows you eternal life in paradise, your friend Jeff& Karen, and yes I have to mention our babies cheesey the cat and her sister buttons.
