“ I met Pat by handling his insurance. He was always extremely kind by phone and appreciated my emails and returned calls with a thank you. I appreciated working for him and his family and hearing about his daughters who made him so proud. I was deeply saddened by this news as we just spoke a few weeks ago and Pat sounded happy as always. My thoughts and prayers go to him, his family, Laurie and all those who knew him. Sincerely, Ellen Pyle, Wise Insurance Agency

“ It was my pleasure to work with Pat from the time he hired in to Cables at BAE until my retirement in 2014. He was a very caring person and always talked about his girls and his mom, whom he loved dearly. he always had a corny joke, ready to start our shift, and loved sharing his country music. Farewell to a dear friend, and my deepest sympathy to the family.

“ It was with shock and then sadness when I heard of Pat's passing. I met him at a former job where we worked at together and right away he caught my attention with his story telling and his laugh. We would talk WWII history, sports and rock n roll music. I can't re how many Alice Cooper concerts he had gone to but when I heard a recent announcement that Alice was going to be nearby my first thought was, Pat's going to be there! I will miss his sense of humor, kind hearted nature and awesome stories! Rest in peace good man, I will never forget you! Ray

“ Pat was a great friend while we were in high school. I know that we were going to have our 45th class reunion in June. I had just been thinking of Pat as I had re-read the details of the reunion. Our most sincere condolences go out to everyone in Pat's family. May God's loving hands surround all of you to provide comfort during this time of loss.

I remember working on his Plymouth at the tire store northwest of the old high school near my home on South Street. We spent many hours prepping the car for a new paint job. I remember going to Kokomo for a regional basketball game...always good fun. I also remember our canoe trip on the Wabash River one fall day...one could never go wrong hanging out with an Eagle Scout. Pat was adventurous, funny, with a great memory and always loyal to his friends. I will miss him at the class reunion this summer. So will all of his friends in the class of 1971.
