“ Oh Joanna! We are so sorry to learn of the passing of Patti. When she was about 4 and you had the hair salon in your home she would always climb in my lap and watch you do my hair! The last time I saw her she told about collecting bears and tried to talk me out of the cardigan I was wearing that had little bear buttons on it!

Our Scott passed away on August 7th so our hearts 💕 are broken and we understand your pain. Love to all the family. Beryl & Marion Gray “ Patti and I have been friends for 35 years most of those years working together. We were more like siblings than friends, arguing, criticizing and creating so many memories and caring for each other.

I would guess they could not get the gates of heaven open fast enough and I can imagine her climbing the gate to get to her son Spencer, her dad Jerry and her grandparents, Patti missed them so much.

Rest Easy My Friend.

You Deserve That.
