“ Peg and I were pretty close friends through the pre highschool years. My life led me from the area for a while, and we lost touch. Recently reunited via social media, she's the same kind loving soul I hung around with 50 years ago. God must have seen how tired she was and called her to his arms to rest.
May he bring comfort to those that Peg has left behind!

“ Growing up near Washington Park, Peggy was my classmate at Park School. She was a treasure of fun and a beautiful spirit. I recently had been visiting her at the nursing home. She was always busy with her crafts or computer. I was very honored to have her as a friend; I will miss our chats.
