“ Jeromy Bowman. Troop 145. Randy was a huge support even before I was in this troop. He was around since my Dad had a Troop in bluffton. Very kind hearted man. Best memory was when he fell asleep on latrine at scout camp and missed breakfast. Lol Sorry for you family's loss. He was a good man

“ I am sorry to learn of Randy's passing, I counted him as a friend and a part of the Epworth Family. He had such a quiet spirit but would be willing to join and help with church activities and outreach. I have counted many of the DeArmond family as friends and sorry to loose that connection here. But I know that he is in great joy to be with our Savior. It was a blessing dear friend to have been in your life and you in mine.

“ I've got to know Randy when he was involved with Boy Scouts. He truly enjoyed helping boys in learning new skills. He loved the outdoors and camping. Rest In Peace and fly high. Randy's family will be in our prayers.
