“ My memory of Becky goes back to many many years ago when her father was our pastor at the Mancelona Missionary Church. I was very close to this family in my teen years. Becky being the middle child was the sweetest, kindest and happiest girl I think I recall knowing! Her spirit was so sweet! Becky was beautiful inside and out! Becky carried this attitude through her life from the postings I have been reading and I believe God needed her sweetness in Heaven and I know Heaven is even a more beautiful place now that Becky has reached her heavenly home! One day I will see this lady again! I believe through this cancer she had to endure, she was able to touch many lives! God uses only the finest! I will pray for the emptiness I know her siblings are feeling as well as her daddy!

“ Becky thought of others not herself. Multiple times I received notes from her telling me she was thinking of and praying for me...all the while, fighting her own battle. It was a blessing to know her.

Heaven is a much sweeter place with you there and you will be missed by us but one day we'll see you again, Sweetheart. Love you so much. Keith and Bonnie Schreck*

“ I was inspired to hear of how you lived while you were in the process of dying. You continued working as you could, singing on the worship team, practicing for the cantata, and I'm sure many other things I do not know of. You didn't let the prognosis and sickness leave you at home just whining to the end. You are a wonderful person, and I am blessed to have known you on this earth, dear Becky.

“ Dear Becky - I fondly remember our youth group days. You were a shining example, even as a teen, of integrity, kindness and God's love. I was so glad to reconnect with you and your sisters on Facebook and, as of late, your lovely daughters. What beautiful things have been said of you over the past months and it was comforting to know you kept your pure, sweet spirit over the years, even in adversity. What an inspiration you were to me as you battled cancer, I drew upon your strength and witness when I faced cancer this past summer. I am forever grateful for you, your courage and the life you so bravely, lovingly, and boldly lived...right up to when God called you home. I am praying for your sweet family and dear father. So glad you all know our Lord Jesus Christ. I look forward to a wonderful reunion one day. Much Love, Dianne (Yerke) Rocke

“ Becky was a wonderful person and gave her all to fight that terrible disease. She was also there when you needed your as a friend. Now she is in heaven with Charlotte and they both have a new body and no more pain, no more tears, and no more sorrows. God knows best and we have to just keep our faith and trust in him. As Becky's favorite brother in law (I suspect!) we always enjoyed giving each other back rubs for almost 30 years. I appreciate Becky's hard work to live a simplistic life and invest in her precious children's lives, as a single./struggling, mom. She was always faithful to attend church and love the Lord. I'm so glad you are at home now, Becky!...eternally and at rest....to be honest, I'm a little envious! Love, David
