“ Such a fun guy back in high school, one day we got back from a track meet only to find his car was lifted up the steps and sitting by the door to the gym. It was a bear to get it back down. As usual Richard took it in stride, never did find out who did it. RIP Richard.

“ Man, where to begin. Rich and Stacy were the 2 people that gave me a chance to show who I was as a person and never judged based on others. He was always willing to lend a hand, showed compassion, and loved people who were good-hearted. Always joked. Spent many weekends watching Nascar, throwing back a few, fires, laughs, and lots of love. I will always remember his caring heart and personality. Gone but in our hearts always.....love you Rich. Like a big brother to me....will never forget you, if it were possible.

“ *Dear Stacy so very Sorry to hear about Richard! I seen him the Friday he went to Lutheran Hospital he wasn't Richard he felt pretty sick I felt so bad for him! I told him I would pray for him not knowing that would be the last time I would see him! What was Awesome even though he was sick he said he would pray for me! I didn't know your Husband real well Stacy but the time I did he seemed like a really good guy! We did have something in common though my Nephew Michael and Niece Toni was Richard's two children! “ Oh boy so many I don't know how to begin. Rich and Stacy were great neighbors of mine for many years. We were always cooking out tossing a few back. He had a knack to create their back yard into a one if a kind. Always a fire and sing alongs. We played games. The light shows Stacy loved. I've missed living beside them. One day in my yard I started a fire. A big oops to say the least. I used gas and dummy me reached down with my Bic lighter and it blew me on my butt. Good Ole Rich looked over fence and asked if I was ok. I was dumb founded and said am I on fire? Lol. We were surprised I wasn't. The day I moved was the saddest I hated moving knowing how much fun I would be missing. Stacy I'm so sorry for your loss. Your husband loved you so much. You were blessed. I will get over for a visit I'm sure you will need some friends. I still have the bandanna. Love you. May God be with you in your trying times. Peace. Carly

“ Rich was such a fun guy. I loved sitting by the fire with him and Stacy just talking the night away. Always fun times. Rich is the type of guy who would give you the shirt off his back. He will be missed.
