“ Janice, I was saddened to learn of Dick's passing. I have no doubt that he is dancing in the presence of our Lord & Savior. I remember so well the Saturday nights that I babysat for your boys & later when your daughter was born - I admired you & Dick so much for the love & devotion you showed to each other. I believe he called it Date Night with his favorite girl. What an inspiration to a young & quiet country teenager to see such love in a young family. I am so happy you had 50 beautiful years together! And I'm doubly glad I got to see again a few years ago when my mother was attending Park UB (when she was well). May God hold you close as you journey through the weeks ahead. He will comfort you & give you strength. Much love & prayers, Susan###imported-begin##Susan (Rupel) Schafer###imported-end##

“ He was my big brother and we talked about that when I came to visit him last summer. It was very unfortunate that we did not grow up together but got to know each other better over the last 10 years or so. Although; we were distant in miles and circumstances beyond our control, I loved him very much. I will look forward to seeing him in Heaven one day. Say Hello to my mom.
