“ My condolences to your family. I use to be an alter boy many years ago at St. Mary's in Decatur and would often serve when Mr. Morrissey would lector. Although those days may have been long forgotten, I recall what a positive influence and genuinely nice man he was. God Bless,

“ Dale was such an encouragement to all of us when we played on the Monroe Lions baseball team a few lifetimes ago. He was almost always there to cheer on Mike & Pat, but yelled for all of us. My favorite was when he'd say, "Two out, boys, let's get a double play!" It always made me laugh then and has for all these years. Thanks, Dale!
