Woodie was born January 15, 1933, in Hollywood, West Virginia to Robert and Ethel (Nichols) Wood. The family moved to Liberty Center, Indiana in 1941. After graduating from Liberty Center High School in 1952, he worked for a short time at Franklin Electric in Bluffton and for Fruehauf Trailer Manufacturing in Fort Wayne, IN. On April 19, 1953, he married his high school sweetheart, Eleanor (Morris), at Liberty Center Baptist Church and was drafted into the US Army on April 25, 1953. He served overseas, including six months in Germany and a year in France where his wife was able to join him and their first child was born. After being discharged in April 1955, Woodie worked for United Rural Electric Membership Corporation (Heartland) for 38 years, the last 22 years as CEO, retiring in January 1998. He was also elected to the board of directors of Federated Exchange in Kansas City, KS, where he served as secretary of the board for ten years. He was a member of the St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Uniondale for over 50 years.

Woodie is survived by his wife, Eleanor, of 71 years, three daughters: Lynnette (Steve) Rohring of Virginia Beach, Virginia; Cheryl (Tim) Hartigan of Bluffton, Indiana; and Carla (Kevin) Miller of Columbus, Ohio; in addition to eight grandchildren: Matthew (Sara) Rohring, Kelly (Dan) Benigno, Kerri (Geoff) Hubble, Kelsey (Zack) Hosford and Yale, Collin, Breckin and Sterling Miller. He is also survived by eight great-grandchildren, a sister, Juanita (Kaye) Ivins of Bluffton, and several nieces and nephews.

Woodie was preceded in death by an infant son, Yale Robert, his parents, Robert Sr. and Ethel Wood, a sister, Judy (Bob) Haver of Rockford, OH and a brother, Willie Lee (Sharon) Wood of Los Angeles, CA.

Woodie thoroughly loved his grandchildren, along with hunting, fishing, camping, his motor home and traveling. Following retirement Woodie and Ellie enjoyed a six-week trip to Alaska in their motor home. He loved the scenery and the salmon fishing and was fortunate enough to visit all fifty states in his lifetime. He and his family members enjoyed two wonderful trips to Europe. He was a constant, positive presence in his family's life as a devoted father and grandfather with a great sense of humor and determination, loving life to the fullest.

Visitation will be held Monday, June 24, from 3pm – 7pm at Thoma/Rich, Lemler Funeral Home in Bluffton. A memorial service will begin at 10:30am Tuesday, June 25, at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Uniondale, IN, with one hour of calling prior to the service. “ Eleanor and family,

I just heard of Bob's passing this morning, as we were on vacation the last week of June and had stopped our paper. Sorry to have missed the visitation.

I didn't know Bob very well or for very long but my memory of him was positive.

I know your family has been super close, so he will be sorely missed. Trusting you all will feel the presence of His comforting Spirit in the days ahead as you continue to reminisce and celebrate a life well lived.

“ Much love to you Lynnette, and your whole family. I did not know your Dad well; though what I knew of him still impresses me all these years later! He was 1 of "those Dads". You know, the kind no one was afraid of, and everyone felt comfortable with, and all love to be around him. That is a testament to his character and his life. May the entire family hold dear those memories, and all those adventures. For he is now holding each one of you with your heart, gently honoring your life together. So much love to you all!

“ Woodie was one of the best CEO`s I had the pleasure to work under. Though it was a short 3 years before he retired, I will always cherish the talks we had and that "slap" on the back that nearly took your breath away when he would run into you in the office. Eleanor, you have my sympathy.

“ Eleanor, and family
It is so good to remember the life Robert has lived, and so sad to hear of his passing.
Bob and Eleanor have lived a life of 'giving', in so many ways to all around them. They have contributed to their community and been leaders in all they touched.
They have been our friends and, though not socially close, I have always been proud of our relationship.
Thank you for your life, Bob, and prayers and sympathy to the family.

“ I'll always remember walking into the house and asking Woody why there were so many clocks?!

What an amazing man who embraced all he knew and loved with warmth and gentleness! I will miss his hugs and stories, but I am forever grateful for his friendship with my grandparents and for treating friends as family...something I'm proud to say future generations are carrying on!

“ Sorry to hear of Bob’s passing. I first met Bob when we were doing concessions for his auction. He sure had a lot of knowledge about the area and history of Wells Co. I worked with Bob several times when he was working for Ellenberger’s auctions appraising coins. He was such a neat guy. Bob’s family will be in our prayers. Dan Gerdom
