“ Steve, I got to know your mother while I was caring for a resident at Evergreen. Your mom found out that I lived in Bluffton and we shared many stories. She was one special lady and I always enjoyed talking with her. She will surely be missed. You and your family have my sympathy. God bless you all at this trying time.

“ *I remember Roberta so fondly and offered sympathies. Roberta and I went to school together, graduated together, attended Reiffsburg Church at the same time and have stayed in touch as best we could over the years. Even after I moved to Michigan to live with my daughter we spoke occasionally on the phone. I will miss her terribly.

“ Roberta had a warm heart and fine sense of humor. She was part of a group of widowed ladies who held monthly meetings and outings for meals and entertainment in the 1980s. She would meet those who lived farther south and drive them to Bluffton for the events. She may be one of the last in that circle of friends to depart - - June, Paddy, Jo, Gwen, and more. Roberta was reliable and friendly to all. She maintained her professionalism and optimism and was generous and caring in her friendship. I will miss her. ~Maureen Butler
