“ I knew him when I was a teenager, he knew how to be a friend despite age differences. That is important in a small community where there are so many cliques that some people don't know what to pick. I loved his sense of humor and friendship.

“ Rory was the manager of Andy's/Reed's Car Wash when I was a salesman at Reed's. Rory dropped off the previous days money at Reed's and I would rib him and we would share a joke. He was always friendly and loved everyone. In my opinion Rory was the most hard working and reliable employee of the car wash. He was dependable and knew his stuff when it came to fixing that confounded always breaking down machine! He was just an all around good guy. He will be missed.
