

Sally Lobsiger

December 6, 1943 - October 1, 2018

Sally Lobsiger, 74, of Bluffton, passed away on Monday afternoon, October 1, 2018, at Signature Health & Rehab Center in Bluffton.

She was born on December 6, 1943 in Bluffton to G. William "Bill" & Joan S. (Sawyer) Garrett. Sally graduated from P.A. Allen High School with the class of 1961.

On December 17, 1961 in Bluffton, Sally married Floyd A. Lobsiger and they have shared 57 years of marriage together.

Sally worked for Larry & Betty Wittwer at Wittwer TV Sales & Service in Bluffton for 10 years and worked in the office of Loren's Body Shop with her husband, Floyd for many years.

Sally loved the Bluffton Street Fair and traveling to car show with Floyd and had a special place in her heart for Boston Terriers. She enjoyed working in the yard and flowers at her home on West Central Ave., where they have lived for over 50+ years and could often be seen sitting on her front porch.

Survivors include her husband Floyd of Bluffton and two children; Kent Lobsiger of Nashville, IN and Amy Lobsiger of Ferndale, MI, and loved her granddaughter, Anabel Sicko of Ann Arbor, MI. She is also survived by her brother, Jerry (Darlene) Garrett of Bluffton.

As Sally requested, there will be no services held. Memorials may be made in her memory to Rock Steady Boxing, through the funeral home. Sally would want to be remembered by "Life Is Good".

Sally arrangements have been entrusted to the care of the Thoma/Rich, Lemler Funeral Home in Bluffton. Friends can send online condolences to the Lobsiger family at www.thomarich.com.

“ I was sorry to hear of Sally's passing, but was amazed and impressed at her positive attitude right up to the end. Sally and I spoke on the phone twice over the last few months and she told me "there are always people worse off than you." Amazing, given all that she had gone through and was still going through. I have many fond memories of when we were kids and playing with Sally at her grandma and grandpa's house two houses west of where I grew up on W. Washington St. My condolences to both the Garrett and Lobsiger families.
