

Samuel E. Krummen Jr.

April 14, 1948 - September 12, 2021

Samuel E. Krummen, Jr., 73 of Bluffton, passed away on Sunday, September 12, 2021, at his residence.

He was born on April 14, 1948 in Bluffton to Samuel E. Krummen, Sr. and Ella Jeanette (Maddux) Krummen. Sammy graduated from Lancaster High School in 1966 and obtained a A.S. degree in Electronics from I.T.T. He worked at Corning Glass Works in Bluffton and retired from Johnson Controls in Ossian, where he worked for many years.

Sammy enjoyed spending time outdoors, hunting, fishing and working in his garden and fruit trees. He was a longtime regular attender of the First Baptist Church in Bluffton.

Survivors include his sister, Iris Crider-Nash of Indianapolis, a niece, Tyler Crider of Indianapolis, along with 2 great-nephews, a great-niece and many cousins and friends.

A celebration of life service will be held at a later time and service arrangements will be released when they are available. Burial will take place at the Apostolic Christian Church Cemetery in Adams County.

Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to the care of the Thoma/Rich, Lemler Funeral Home in Bluffton. Friends can send online condolences to the family at www.thomarich.com.

“ I worked with Sam at Johnson Controls. He was my friend and gardening mentor. I am still growing horseradish from the starts he gave me. I always think of him when the leaves come up in the spring. I'm so sorry to hear he is gone. He was a good guy. May he rest in peace.
