“ So sorry to learn of Scott Burns passing far too young. He was a student in the First Grade at Liberty Center Elementary School and I was a Teacher's Aide in that class. Scott was a very well behaved young man and I always remembered him and was glad to have known him if only for a short time. Thoughts are with the family at this time. ~BJ Gray~

“ I was so sorry to here of Scott's passing...Scott was a good friend of mine for a lot of years, we worked at Sterling Castings for lot of years together...everybody would always kid him about his girlfriend, just to get under his skin...I will always remember that...R.I.P. my brother !!

“ To the parents of Scott Burns: I wish you the most solemn of condolences for the loss of your son. My memories of Adrian as a classmate at Petroleum High School are positive and I always considered you as friend even as time drew up apart. I recently lost a daughter and I can feel your sorrow over this loss. They say that time heals these wounds and I hope they do for you, but I still live every day with my precious memories. Bless you in your time of grief. from an old, old classmate ----- Ted Baumgartner

“ Scott, you will be missed. So full of humor that kept all of us laughing. Although I know it's a shock to us all, God has you in his hand as he knows our plan for our lives. He will take us all home one day just as he has you. We just did not expect it this soon, as all of our generation that has past before you ❤️ Give Dad and Rhonda a hug for me and the others as you all cheer on your teams. You all that share this together now are our beloved loved ones. Until we meet again my Cousin, your memories fill our hearts and minds💔💔💔
