“ After becoming neighbors & remaining friends for almost 30 years, I cannot express the grief I feel over this loss. I was always pestering Scott about coming to church with me & that him attending my wedding didn't count. He finally agreed BUT with one condition...Buddy got to come too. I think he thought he had figured out a way to get me to stop asking but to his surprise my pastor, Lenny Stringer, said Buddy was more than welcome. Scott was a man of his word & the following week he & Buddy came to Fellowship Baptist Church with bells on...Buddy was literally wearing Christmas reindeer antlers with little bells on them. Scott made mine & my families day & the day of every kid that was there. I will always cherish that memory along with many others.

“ After starting off as neighbors & remaining friends over the last 30 years, I cannot express the grief over this loss. I was always pestering Scott about coming to church with me; reminding him that attending my wedding didn't count. He finally agreed on one condition & that was that he could bring Buddy. I think he thought he had finally figured out a way to get me to stop asking because there was no way a dog would be allowed to go. I called my pastor, Lenny Stringer, and he said Buddy was more than welcome to come. Scott was a man of his word & the following week he & Buddy came to Fellowship Baptist Church with bells on...Buddy was literally wearing Christmas reindeer antlers with little bells on them. He not only made mine & my family's day but the day of every child that was there. That is one of many memories I will always cherish.

Your family is in our thoughts & prayers. Tom & Gina Hon & our family.

“ So many I could share, but what really stands out were the trips we made EVERY Monday to Southtown Mall. We both worked at Scott's grocery store and had Monday's off so we spent our time (usually 3 or 4 hours in the morning) just walking around. Boring, maybe, but we had fun. My prayers are with Charlie, Sharon Bob and Bill as they mourn the loss of my friend.
