“ Dear Ryan, Zach and Family,
I am so sorry for the loss of your mother, Nanny. If Jonathan were here, he would be devastated. You know how much you all meant to him and how much you all still mean to us. You are all forever in our hearts. Everytime I pass your old house I think of you.
Those years were so great with all you kids running around and the block has never been the same since you left.
Not only do I remember your mom's baking, especially around the holidays, I remember her undying love and devotion to you, her children. I remember her telling me why she decided go back home to Indiana and it was to protect her children and give them a better life. That's what life is all about and I believed she fulfilled her mission as mother. Now you must carry the torch into the future in her memory for her grandchildren.
Your mother's last words to me were to console me for the loss of my Jonathan and to tell me that he is now with Evan. Well, now she is with both of them. Caring for and hugging them.
I love you so much and I will be praying for all of you. Love Always,
Pauline
