“ Man, what is there to say about my wonderful great aunt except that I will miss her terribly. In a world full of wonderful people, she was always the first to celebrate all of my success with me in the equine world. We spent hours talking about our love for our wonderful German shepherds and how great and smart they were. I'll never forget going to Indiana to meet her as a kid and all of the energy she brought to my life every single day. I will miss her terribly, and I hope her family knows how loved she was .
