“ 50 years ago it seems like Terry and I were joined at the hip, we did just about everything and went everywhere together (sometimes, Ohio), too ,many good times to even begin. Was very sorry to hear of his passing. To the kids and family, my thoughts and prayers. May you rest in peace, my FRIEND, in that great Assembly Hall in the sky.

“ Out of the state and can't attend services. Terry was in the car wash south of town. I pulled up behind him to talk just as he dropped the last quarter in. The wand was lying on the ground and started flying around and hit his Chevelle. He was chasing it like swating flies and was not very happy. We talked about that many times. He sold that car to Steve Myers. Thots and prayers
