“ I so wish I could be with you in Indiana to celebrate Uncle Tom's life. We loved visits from him and Aunt Marge. Uncle Tom was so very generous sharing all the information he gathered about the Antrim family, going back to the 1600s. And he toured me around Valley Forge and cemeteries in Oley, Pottstown and Elverson, PA to visit the ancestors and their graves. He loved his family and nobody was more proud of his sons and grandchildren.

His passing just after All Saint's Day, a hymn we sang in Church this past Sunday seems so fitting:

"Let Saints on earth in concert sing with those whose work is done;
for all the servants of our King in heaven and earth are one."

Sending you all my love, Jeanne Dewan

“ My wife Sarah and I send our condolences. I will greatly miss Tom. I cherish the memories of seeing him and my grandmother together, especially when he came from Indiana to visit her when she was ill. I also loved getting to visit Bluffton for one of Tom’s birthdays, with my Mom and Aunt Barb. Our family misses him. -Bryan Dewan (Tom’s great nephew)
