“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Skurner family. I knew your Dad not only from growing up with Jack in Bluffton ... but I was lucky enough to be a co-worker at Navistar with Tom too. I have many memories of Tom and Bev as they were the kindest and most wonderful people in the world. If I didn't have parents ... I would have wanted them to be mine. I even spent a few overnights at the Skurner homestead when in Jr High as Jack and I were very good friends. I remember Tom canning vegetables, laying brick, watching football on TV ... such a great guy. At Harvester, let me tell you, he was the expert in metallurgy. To Jack and to the rest of the family my thoughts and prayers go out to you all. My deepest sympathy to the Skurner family.
