“ *Dear Marcia,
i'm so sorry to hear of Vance's passing.
I also know there is rejoicing in Heaven.
Your Mom and Dad together with Vance.
My Mom died 2 years ago last March. Then my Brother Charles two months later in May.
I know they are all together.
I do hope you remember me. We didn't get together often. But every summer in Indy at Marion and Gene's for the reunion again you have my sympathy , kay###imported-begin###Kay ( “ Uncle Max & Aunt Mary had to be the very definition of unconditional love. They included Vance as a blessing in their lives for as long as possible. Marcia, you were dealt a difficult role and handled it with such love and dignity. I am proud to be one of your cousins.

“ Dear Marcia and family,
I do not know any of your family, but I was deeply touched by reading Vance's obituary. I will honor his request to commit a random act of kindness ~ what a gracious, generous legacy! It speaks volumes of the person he was and the family who loved him. I know he is singing in our Lord's choir and rejoicing being reunited with your parents! God bless you.##imported-begin##Sandy Funk##imported-end##

“ Marcia,

I am sorry your brother has passed away. I used to take care of your Mom & Dad's medicine when they lived in Columbia City at Oak Pointe. I know they used to worry about what would your happen to your brother after they had passed. I know how much your mom wanted him to have his independence. And I know her goal in life was for Vance to have a fulfilled life. Max & Mary were wonderful people... The 3 of them are now rejoicing in heaven and playing beautiful music together!! Fondly, Heather Reid##imported-begin##Heather Reid##imported-end##

“ Marcia,
I am sad in hearing of the passing of Vance but happy in knowing he is with your parents again in heaven. I have known your Mother Mary for many years as she was my brother Kevins teacher. We then reconnected when we moved back to Columbia City in the house behind them (beside the church). We now live in the home I grew up in so I can care from my brother Kevin as both of our parents have passed. Prayers for all of your family. I can hear Vance calling to your parents when he saw them again in heaven. Warms my heart.##imported-begin##Juni (Dear) Krantz##imported-end##
