“ "Miss Stair" was my second teacher Poplar Grove School. What I most remember most about Miss Stair was that often passed out ice cream treats during class for good behavior. One day she passed out pop cycles, and I had never seen one before, and didn't know what to with it. So I put in my desk. About 20 minutes later there was a dripping noise coming from my desk, (I was near the front of the room) and she asked what that noise was. Yes, my pop cycle was melting. Miss Stair gave me a "little" scolding, but did not make a big deal out of it, and the rest of the class had a good laugh on me.

“ God bless you, Vida. Thank you for all the beautiful music you and Tressie provided for us Sunday after Sunday. And for all the laughs! My memories of you and your patriotism and love of our Lord will last forever. What a lovely service Tim had for you. A lovely tribute to a lovely lady. Hugs and much love, Valerie

“ 1960-1961, 3rd grade, Washington Center Elementary School, north of Fort Wayne on Wallen Road. Ms. Stair was my wonderful teacher. A few years back after my 40 year high school reunion, one of my classmates told me about visiting Ms. Stair and that Ms. Stair had given her some of our original "essays" written in 3rd grade. Oh my goodness, when I received mine, I could only imagine the worry Ms Stair must have had about us and whether we would turn out alright as adults.....the "essays" were quite unique to say the least. Of all my elementary school teachers she is probably the one I have reminisced about more than all the others combined. Thank you, Ms Stair, I hope we all exceeded your expectations.

“ I think all of us as nieces and nephews will remember the great back porch days of turkey tracks, Skip Bo, popcorn and ice cream! But one memory which becomes more hilarious with time is when my wife, Tricia, and I visited during an IU basketball game. Our attention was slowly turned away from the game and onto Vida and Tressie. I was amazed how enthusiastically they were into it. They knew every player, and when watching on the TV they were listening to the radio! It seems they couldn't stand the suspense of not knowing how things were going to turn out and had discovered that the radio time lag was 6 seconds less than TV. It was somewhat confusing to hear the radio announcer declare "And it's good!" While watching the free thrower still dribbling! But they loved it! Vida really cared about her small church, too, and each of her friends there.

And her church friends love her and Tressie dearly. We are heartbroken. Thank you for the smile. IU basketball and politics were 2 of Vida's favorite subjects. Wonderful, wonderful lady. And an amazing talent.

Vida and Tressie were such great neighbors and are missed very much. So many, many memories! Best of all though was when they played for my daughter Julie's wedding! They made the day even more meaningful with their beautiful music!
