“ To Will's Family,

*It seems like it was only last year when we lived on "No Number Road." Where could this much time go? May God wrap you in his loving arms and comfort you. Thoughts and prayers to you all.
God bless,*

“ What can I say, I am devastated to hear Will's passing. He was my friend, my teacher, yes, he really taught me how to fly. I was his mechanic, and I would never let him take an aircraft that I did not feel was safe. I had his back, and in many ways he had mine. Will helped me out several times. You will never be forgotten my friend. Rest in Peace now, you will be forever in my thoughts. My prayers and deepest sympathy to his mother and family. So sorry.

Sincerely yours,

“ This makes me incredibly sad for each of you. I have always remembered Will as a favorite preschool student full of fun and intelligence, even at an early age.

My thoughts, prayers and sympathy goes out to all of Will's extended family.
