“ My memories with Bill are unlimited. His talents, skills and interests were so varied and exceptional. Superb wrestler, American Hero award by President Eisenhower, Wilson Scholarship, outdoorsman, rafting down the Mississippi with his cousin, playing hobo for a while hopping a train (short lived), self building his home and finally stealing Becky from all the eager competitors at BHS. He and the love of his life brought 6 different kids into the family all learning so much from their unique father. Some talents were muted as he returned home to help with the family business but things were always exciting at the Steury home. One typical memory was swiping the company Jeep at age 14 on a rattling joy ride to Burn where he could barely see over the steering wheel. The other memory was raising the Park School stop sign to the top of the flag pole on Halloween, only to have it come crashing down missing us by inches. With Amish background, he had skilled hands always put to use. He was my best friend in school. He will be missed.
