“ She always made me laugh with the way she would deliver her one-liners. I appreciated the way she could and would call out something as it was – there was no grey with her, it was either black or white. I admired her ability to make everyone feel like family. Thank you for letting me be a part of your life, Yvonne. Rest in peace.

“ Yvonne was always a delight to work with. In the early days when working for Marching Show Concepts, she would handle the customers requests and make service calls to Clients. Then for many years there after Yvonne coordinated and handle all of the companies mailings. With a tremendous sense of dedication and positive attitude, She was always a joy be around and work with! Great Memories! Randy
